Class of Rightsholders Represented

The Authors' Licensing and Collecting Society Limited ('ALCS') is the UK rights management society for writers of all genres of literary and dramatic copyright works including fiction, journalism, plays, poetry, academic texts, TV and radio scripts and story-lines, dramatisations, translations, abridgements and adaptations.

Established in 1977 and wholly owned by its writer members (of whom there are currently over 120,000), ALCS is a not-for-profit, non-union organisation. The Society's governing body, the Board of Directors, is composed of elected Ordinary writer members. Since its foundation, ALCS has paid writers over £700 million in fees and today it continues to identify and develop new sources of income for writers.
